

The Board of Directors of the Thompson Citizenship Council announces the appointment of Sukh Deepak Khokhar as the executive Director of the Multi-Culture Centre. Ms. Khokhar feels very strongly that it is important not only to foster a better understanding between the great variety of cultural groups in Thompson, but also within the community at large. She comes to the position with a lot of genuine interest in multiculturalism. She is also an artist, and does portraits in (oil colors and in pencil) she is also an author of the book "walking In Dreams." Ms. Khokhar will be officially introduced in the general membership of the Thompson Citizenship Council at the Christmas Party on Thursday, December 12 at 7:30 p.m. at the Multi-Culture Centre. She will also be on hand to host Wednesday's Coffee and Conversation at the Centre when the theme will be "Meet the New Executive Director." Take time to drop into the Multi-Culture Centre and meet Executive Director Khokhar.